Such notes shall, as far as possible, be self-contained. Specific files related to the agenda items shall be made available to all the members of the Commission for reference. The agenda papers shall ordinarily be circulated to the Chairperson and Members at least two clear days before every meeting. When matters are set down for hearing or enquiry, cause-list of the day of sitting shall be prepared and circulated. The Commission may, however, take up any matter for deliberation/ consideration, which is not included in the agenda.

CHAPTER – II

PROCEDURE FOR DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS OR

SUO-MOTU ACTION

8. Procedure for dealing with complaints:-

(1) Complaints may be made to the Commission in Kannada, Hindi or English. However, the Commission may entertain complaints in other language in its discretion, provided that when the complaints are made in any language other than in Kannada or in English, translated version of the complaints either in Kannada, Hindi or English shall also be furnished.

(2) No fee shall be chargeable on such complaints.

(3) The complaint should disclose a complete picture of the subject matter with specific details and name and authority or officer against whom it is made. The Commission may, if necessary, require the complainant to file the complaint in the Form No. VII of the Regulations or call for further information and shall direct affidavits to be filed in support of the allegations.

9. Complaints not ordinarily entertainable:-

The Commission may dismiss in limine complaints of the following nature:-

- (a) Vague, anonymous, pseudonymous, illegible, unsigned, trivial or frivolous complaints
- (b) Complaints about the matter which are not within the jurisdiction or in the format in mobile app of the Commission
- (c) Complaint in respect of the matter, inquiry into which, is barred by limitation of one year from the date on which the act constituting violation of human rights is alleged to have been committed.
- (d) Complaints related to any civil dispute such as property rights, contractual obligation etc.
- (e) Complaints involving service rules or industrial dispute and service matters not directly affecting human rights.
- (f) Complaints in which no allegations are made against any public servant.
- (g) Complaints in which specific violation of human rights is not alleged or made out.
- (h) Complaints in which the main subject matter is sub-judice or pending before any court, tribunal or authority.
- (i) Complaints regarding matters which are already decided by decision of any Court or Commission.
- (j) Complaints which are addressed to other authorities and of which a copy is sent to the Commission or received by the Commission.
- (k) Complaint about any matter which is outside the purview of the Commission
- (l) Complaints received through e-mail, at the email address of the Commission;
- (m) When complaint is made in any language other than in Kannada, Hindi or English, translated version of the complaints either in Kannada or English is not filed; and
- (n) Any incorrect or false information or any suppression of material fact shall make the complaint liable to be dismissed at any stage, with appropriate order.

10. Receipt and distribution of dak:-

(1) All communications in writing by whatsoever mode they are received and addressed to the Commission, its Chairperson, Members or other officers of the Commission, either by name or designation, shall be received at the receipt counter of the Commission.

(2) The communications addressed by name to the Chairperson or Member shall be delivered to the addressee forthwith by the receipt section.

(3) The dak shall be opened under the direct supervision of the officer in-charge of the Receipt and Dispatch Section, who shall get the same sorted out and diarised in a register containing particulars such as, date of receipt, diary number, sender's name and the revenue district to which the complaint belongs and then transmit the same to Law Division under acknowledgment.

11. Procedure regarding complaints:-

(1) The complaints received or accepted by the Commission, Chairperson or members, will be placed forthwith before the officer in-charge of the Law Division, so that they could be placed before the Commission expeditiously. The Complaints shall thereafter be entered in a Register in seriatum and a complaint receipt number shall be allotted to the same.

(2) A common register shall be maintained in the Law Division for entering in serial order, the case number with the name of District and year of registration, the corresponding diary number and the district to which the matter relates. The complaint number assigned to the complaint along with the name of the District shall be entered in red ink on the top right-hand corner of the complaint.

(3) Every complaint shall be put up before the Commission with utmost expedition. Subject to such special or general orders of the Chairperson, all complaints shall in the first instance be dealt with by a Single Bench. But complaints involving vital or complex issues shall be listed before a Division or Full Bench, as directed by the Chairperson. The complaints, which require urgent consideration, shall be placed before the Commission as far as possible within three days of their receipt.

(4) All complaints relating to custodial death, custodial torture, custodial rape or illegal detention shall be normally heard by a Division or Full Bench of the Commission, while the cases of other types shall go before a Single Bench unless otherwise directed by the Chairperson, keeping in view the nature of a particular case. A Single or Division Bench, as the case may be, may refer a case pending before it to Division Bench or Full Bench respectively.

(5) The Commission may ask the parties to tender evidence on affidavits. The Commission may further orally examine the person whose evidence has been tendered on affidavit, if it considers necessary by itself or on the request of the parties.

(6) File covers shall be got printed as in Form No. 1, Records relating to each complaint shall be kept with a separate file cover arranging them chronologically in the following order namely:

- (i) Index in Form No. II
- (ii) Order sheet in Form No. III
- (iii) Complaint with annexure, if any in Form No. VII

12. Constitution of Bench (es) and placing of case files:-

(1) The case files in respect of cases shown in the cause-list of the day shall be placed before the Benches to be constituted by the Chairperson, along with a copy of the cause-list.

(2) The number of cases to be included in the cause-list to be placed before each Bench per day shall be fixed according to the directions of the Chairperson or member concerned from time to time.

(3) If any working day is declared as a holiday by the State Government, then the cases listed for that day should be taken up on the next working day.

13. Preliminary consideration, issue of notice, etc:-

(1) If on consideration of the complaint, the Commission dismisses the complaint in limine, the said order shall be communicated to the complainant in Form No. IV and the case shall be treated as closed.

(2) If, suo-motu or on consideration of the complaint, the Commission admits or takes cognizance and directs issue of notice to any authority calling upon it to furnish information or report, a notice in Form No. V shall be issued, enclosing a copy of the complaint. The Registrar or Asst. Registrar shall sign such notice.

14. Recording of orders or proceedings:-

(1) Orders of the Commission shall be recorded in the order sheet. Orders, which are lengthy, may be recorded on separate sheets and appended to the order sheet. The Private Secretary or the Personal Assistant attached to the Chairperson or Member concerned shall make entry in the relevant column of the order sheet mentioning the page numbers and the date of the order. The order shall then be fed into the computer and may be communicated to the complainant and other parties concerned, as may be directed by general or special order.

(2) In case where urgent action is required to be taken pursuant to the order or proceeding recorded by the Commission, the Private Secretary or Personal Assistant concerned shall forthwith send the file to the Registrar or the concerned Deputy Registrar who shall give suitable instructions in regard to the mode of communication by telephonic message, fax, speed post or e-mail etc., and transmit the records to the Section concerned for taking further action.

15. Summons:- (a) Whenever the Commission directs to issue summons to:-

- (i) The complainant or any other person on his behalf to afford him a personal hearing; or
- (ii) any other person who, in the opinion of the Commission, should be heard for appropriate disposal of the matter before it; or
- (iii) any person to cause production of records required by the Commission; or
- (iv) any person to be examined as a witness; or
- (v) any person whose conduct is inquired into by it; or
- (vi) any person whose reputation, in the opinion of the Commission, is likely to be prejudicially affected, such summons shall be issued as is prescribed in the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 (Central Act No.10 of 1994)

(b) The case, in which summons has been issued for personal appearance of a person, shall be placed before the Commission on the date shown in the summons for such personal appearance.

(c) The cases in which summons has been issued for personal appearance of a person and in case, the person referred in the summons fails without any lawful excuse to attend or produce the document in compliance with such summons or has intentionally avoided service, the Commission may in its discretion, issue a warrant, either with or without bail, for the arrest of such person.

16. Calling for investigation report:- Whenever the Commission orders investigation to be undertaken by its Investigation Division or by any other investigating agency of the Central or State Government as provided in Section 14 of the Act, a copy of such order along with copies of the papers relevant thereto shall be furnished forthwith to such Division or Agency calling upon it to conduct the investigation and submit its report within the time specified in the order and if no time is specified, within one month from the date of receipt of the order.

17. Communication of Recommendations:- When the Commission, upon consideration of the inquiry report, makes any recommendation, a copy of the inquiry report along with a copy of the recommendation, shall be sent by telephone, fax, speed / registered post, email, by hand or such other means as may be directed with utmost expedition, not later than seven days from the date of such recommendation, to the authority concerned calling upon it to furnish its comments on the report including the action taken or proposed to be taken, within a period of one month from the date of receipt of order or recommendations made by the Commission or within such time as the Commission may allow. Similarly, comments shall be invited by the Commission at any stage of the proceeding from the complainant, and shall be placed on record for consideration of the Commission.

18. Steps after calling for comments:-

(1) If no comments are received within the time allowed under Regulation 17, the case shall be placed before the Commission forthwith for further Order or Recommendation.

(2) If comments are received, the case shall be placed by the Law Division before the Commission or the Member concerned with a brief note containing the following particulars, namely,

(i) whether the recommendation is accepted by the Government or the authority concerned; if so, whether in full or in part;

(ii) the action, if any taken or proposed to be taken by the Government or its authority concerned;

(iii) the reasons, if any, given for not accepting the recommendation; and

(iv) the action that may be taken pursuant to the comments received.

(3) On consideration of the comments received along with note referred to in Clause (2), the Commission may pass such order, as it deems just and proper.

19. Incorporation of other documents received:-

(1) Whenever any document is received in the Commission relating to the complaint registered, the same shall be incorporated in chronological order in the respective case file, duly paginated by the Law Division. Appropriate entries shall be made in the order sheet. The Law Division shall make entries in the index.

(2) Data relating to each case as required to be provided in the register in form No.VI and also information relating to intermediary stages shall be fed into the computer at every stage as and when the information becomes available.

20. Publication:- When the Commission passes an order after inquiry under Section 17 of the Act, the Registrar shall cause to:-

(a) Prepare, at the close of each month, a list of such cases, furnishing particulars such as case number, name of the complainant, name of the authority concerned and the date of the final order. A Note shall be put up below the list to the effect that a copy of the inquiry report etc., referred to in Clause (f) of section 18 of the Act is available for perusal in the Library of the Commission;

(b) Publish the list so prepared on the notice board of the Commission on the first working day of the second week of every month.

(c) Make available simultaneously to the Library of the Commission two sets of the documents referred in clause (f) of section 18 of the Act, and further order, if any, passed by the Commission in each case.

(d) Send simultaneously free of cost of a copy each of:-

- (i) the documents referred to in Clause (c) to the complainant or his representative; and
- (ii) the order referred to in Clause (3) of regulation 18 to the authority concerned.

21. Mode of Communication:-

(a) All communications shall be made through electronic mode or telephonic message or e-mail and SMS – All notices, intimations, orders or other letters from the Commission shall be communicated by one or more of the following modes of communication, [as per requirement, general or special order or urgency;] viz: registered post acknowledgement due, ordinary post, e-mail, phone (landline), mobile phone, WhatsApp, SMS or delivery by hand at the number or address given by the parties concerned in the complaint, response, letter or any other communication or in any authentic publication.

(b) Wherever, a complaint is received in writing on paper or via internet portal, website or mobile App of Karnataka State Human Rights Commission and an email address or phone number of the complainant is mentioned therein, or the origin of the complaint is traceable to such address or phone number or where, during the course of any enquiry, investigation or hearing at the instance of Karnataka State Human Rights Commission the email address or phone number of any person or authority has come on record, any communication by Karnataka State Human Rights Commission to such address by email or telephone shall be sufficient service of the communication to that person or authority, and no written or printed letter in physical form or acknowledgment of receipt thereof shall be required for further proceeding or disposal and closure of the case.

Provided that the Commission may order additional service of any communication, notice, summons or intimation by such means as it may direct.

22. Review:- No party shall have a right to seek review of the order or proceedings of the Commission:

Provided that, if any application seeking modification or review of the order or proceedings passed by the Commission is received, the same shall be placed before the same Bench which made the order, along with the case file and a brief note on the point made out in such application and the same shall be disposed of by such order keeping in view the provisions of Section 114 read with Order 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. However, if same bench is not available, order may be obtained from the Chairperson in that behalf.

23. Consignment of records:- Records of all cases finally disposed of shall be transmitted to the Records Section in the Law Division after completing the entries in the register in Form No.VI with regard to each such case.

24. Period of preservation of Record:-

(1) Unless otherwise ordered by special or general orders of the Chairperson, the entire records of disposed of cases under

Regulation-9 shall be destroyed after expiry of six months from the date of final disposal and the records of other cases may be disposed after expiry of one year from the date of disposal, other than the records of files wherein the recommendations or orders of the Commission are challenged before any court or pending for compliance of the recommendation of the Commission by Government or any other authority.

(2) However, the register, in Form No.VI, which contains information regarding each complaint, shall be preserved permanently.

25. Destruction of records:-

(1) The officer in charge of the Record Section shall indentify the cases, the records of which are due for destruction after one year of disposal or compliance of the recommendation and ensure that appropriate entries are made in the register in Form No.VI regarding the date of destruction. A list of such cases shall be maintained in a separate book in the section.

(2) Original documents produced by a party shall be returned to him if a request thereof is received in the Commission before the date of destruction.

(3) The officer in charge of Record Section shall cause to destroy the records subject to such general or special order or direction that may be given by the Registrar regarding the manner of destruction.

26. Procedure regarding suo-motu action:- The procedure contained in this Chapter shall mutatis mutandis apply to suo-motu action taken by the Commission.

27. Preparation of Statements:- The Registrar shall cause to prepare such weekly, monthly, quarterly, half-yearly statements or returns or reports in such form shall be prescribed by the Commission or Chairperson from time to time.

28. Use of video tele-conferencing in the Commission:-

(1) During the course of any inquiry, investigation or other proceeding by or under the orders of the Commission, any person, the complainant, an officer or authority shall be examined or interviewed by electronic mode through video conferencing or other audio or video tele-communication as may be expedient in, such manner and in such cases as the Commission, may decide by a general order or as may be ordered by a Member or Chairperson in any particular case or enquiry.

(2) The statement or, as the case may be, the testimony of the complainant, officers or authority concerned may also be recorded through video conferencing. The Commission shall obtain signature of the person being examined, on the transcript a copy of which shall be transmitted to the person concerned, once the examination is concluded. The printout of the transcript shall be signed by the Chairperson or Members concerned at the Commission and shall be sent in non-editable scanned format to the e-mail account of the person or authority concerned, where a printout of the same shall be taken and signed by the person examined. A non-editable scanned format of the transcript so signed shall be sent by the person concerned to the official e-mail account of the Commission, where a printout of the same shall be taken and shall be made a part of the record.

(3) An audio-visual recording of the examination of person so examined shall be preserved for at least one year. An encrypted master copy with hash value shall be retained as a part of the record.

CHAPTER – III MISCELLANEOUS

29. Minutes of the Meeting:-

(1) The minutes of each meeting of the Commission shall be recorded during the meeting itself or immediately thereafter by the Secretary or by any other officer as directed. Such minutes shall be submitted to the Chairperson for his approval and upon approval, be circulated to all the Members of the Commission at the earliest and in any case, before the commencement of the next meeting.

(2) The minutes of the previous meeting shall be put up before the Commission in its next meeting for confirmation.

(3) The conclusions of the Commission in every matter shall be recorded in the form of an opinion. Dissenting opinions, if any, shall also form part of the record and be kept on record. Action shall be taken on the basis of the majority opinion if there is any difference in opinions.

(4) Unless specifically authorized, no action shall be taken by the Secretariat of the Commission on the minutes of the meetings until the same are confirmed.

30. Record of minutes:- A master copy of the minutes of every meeting and decisions of the Commission shall be maintained in a Proceedings Book, duly authenticated by the Secretary, and a copy of the minutes pertaining to each item shall be added to the relevant file for appropriate action, and authenticated copies thereof shall be kept in the respective Division and for convenience, copies thereof with appropriate indexing shall be kept in guard files.

31. Report of Action Taken:- Report of follow up action shall be submitted to the Commission at every subsequent sitting indicating there in the present stage of action on each item on which the Commission had taken a decision in any of its earlier meetings, excepting the items on which no further action is called for.

32. Authentication of order and decisions:-

(1) Orders and decisions of the Commission shall be authenticated by the Secretary or any officer of the Commission as authorized by the Chairperson, who shall be not below the rank of an Assistant Registrar.

(2) Unless any document is classified by the State Commission as confidential, copy thereof shall be made available to the parties in the matter on demand, on payment of cost as prescribed by the Commission from time to time, unless the Commission decides otherwise. Every effort should be made to provide the copies with utmost expedition and in any case, not later than two weeks from the date of receipt of written request.

33. Annual Report:- The Commission shall furnish its annual report for the period commencing from 1st April of the year to 31st March of the succeeding year to the State Government as provided in sub-section (1) of section 20 of the Act. The original report shall be signed by the Chairperson and Members of the Commission and appropriately preserved and a duly authenticated copy shall be sent to the Government by end of September of every year.

34. Special Reports:- The Commission may furnish such special reports on specific matters as may be considered necessary in terms of sub-section (1) of Section 20 of the Act.

35. Printing of the Reports:- The Secretariat of the Commission shall be responsible for printing of the Annual Report and Special Reports with utmost expedition and in any case not later than three months of finalization of the same.

36. Investigation Team:- The Commission shall form its own team of investigation to be headed by a person not below the rank of an Inspector General of Police or Deputy Superintendent of Police and such team of officers, as the Commission from time to time decides. The Commission may, in its discretion appoint adequate number of outsiders to be associated with the investigation team either as investigators or observers.

37. Power to remove difficulties:- If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the Act, the Rules made thereunder or these Regulations, the Chairperson, by order, as occasion requires, do anything (not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations) which appears to him to be necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

38. Amendments and Additions:- It shall be competent for the Commission to insertion, delete and amend these Regulations from time to time and to issue appropriate directions or orders on any matter not covered by these Regulations.

39. Repeal and Savings:-

(1) With coming into force of these Regulations, the Karnataka State Human Rights Commission (Procedure) Regulations, 2007 shall cease to have effect and stands repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the said Regulations shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these Regulations.
